

Some “labour” Perspectives on Preservation

Peter Theunissen

Consulting Actuary

The Business of Change: 2010 and Beyond

Preservation is Good

1. All stakeholders surely agree

2. What do we mean?

Until when? For what purpose? In what form?

3. How do we do it?

Administration, Longevity & Asset pricing?

4. Are we too comfortable on our perch? Do we see only the cere and the footing, but ignore the rest?

The Business of Change: 2010 and Beyond

Dark Chanting Goshawk (1)

The Business of Change: 2010 and Beyond

Do we see only the cere and one leg, ignoring the rest?

Wider Social Context – Harsh realities

1. HIV/AIDS, other life- & family- health factors
2. Job-loss & other family-threatening economic issues
3. Foreign workers?
4. What is family?

The Business of Change: 2010 and Beyond

Wider Social Context – Harsh realities

5. Housing needs:
  - a. US Federal National Mortgage Association founded in 1938; 70 years later, ...
  - b. Pension-backed home loans
6. Broadening and deepening the coverage
7. “Preservation” as part of other needs

Dark Chanting Goshawk (1)

The Business of Change: 2010 and Beyond

Do we see only the cere and one leg, ignoring the rest?

Dark Chanting Goshawk (2)

The Business of Change: 2010 and Beyond

Or, is there more to be seen?

Option One: Solo (starting VII, broer)

The Business of Change: 2010 and Beyond

Option Two: Team (“Nedlac” VIII, sis’)

The Business of Change: 2010 and Beyond

