

Curriculum Vitae

Dr. Klaus Ramming

28 th September 1959	born in San Francisco/California, USA
Summer 1978	exams at German high school (Johannes-Brahms-Gymnasium, Pinneberg)
July 1978 through March 1980	service as cadet and officers assistant on various Hapag-Lloyd AG vessels
1980 through 1983	attended to Hamburg Maritime School; obtained a limited licence (OOW) for world wide trade
1983 through 1984	Service as third, second and chief mate on vessels operated by Ernst Russ and F. Laeisz Schiffahrtsgesellschaft mbH & Co.
December 1984	Obtained the unlimited word wide licence as a master mariner
January 1985 through May 1986	military service in the German Navy
1985 through 1995	studied at the University of Hamburg, passing of bar exam
since 1 st July 1995	employed by Lebuhn & Puchta, Hamburg
since 1996	Editor of the Hamburg Maritime Newsletter (in German language)
April 2000	academic title Dr. jur.

I am a regularly lecturing at the Bucerius Law School on Transport and Maritime Law. Also, I have published numerous articles on transport and maritime law issues and am in the process of writing a major work on contracts of carriage and bills of lading, to be published later this year (all in German language).